General and Revenue Secretariat,

No. 6667-76/G.B. Dated Bangalore, 28th December 1949

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

There are a number of points arising out of the new Constitution of India being enacted with effect from the 26th January 1950 on which urgent action is necessary in the several branches of the Secretariat.

Secretaries to Government are requested to study the new Constitution and to initiate such action as is necessary in so far as they are concerned after consulting the Heads of Departments concerned if necessary.

In order to avoid duplication of work and to co-ordinate all action taken in this behalf, it is requested that the Chief Secretariat may kindly be kept informed of the action taken by each branch and that they may be consulted before the Government of India is addressed on any point.

Arrangements are being made to supply copies of the Constitution of India to the Secretaries to Government.

The matter is of the highest importance, and it is requested that it should be given top priority, especially as some points need attention immediately and finalisation before the 26th January 1950.

By Order,
